

EDITOR'S BITES

Steven Short eats up the capital

TAKE A PINCH of Portuguese, a dash of French and a sprinkle of Mediterranean and you get Portal. Pop in for petiscos (Portuguese tapas) or a full-on supper. Crème of green tomatoes with tuna tartare and chorizo oil and Bacalhau (salt cod) confit with hummus and garlic oil are both delicious. Star of the show, though, is the beyond-tender braised 'bisaro' – a black pig/wild boar hybrid. (88 St John Street EC1, 020 7253 6950.)